CONFERRING OF THE MEDALLION AWARDS

The Medallion Award is conferred by Villanova University in recognition of the outstanding achievements of the recipient and his generous service to the School of Law. This year, two Medallion Awards will be conferred.

The first is conferred on Professor Henry H. Perritt, Jr., who has served with distinction as Professor of Law since 1981. Professor Perritt has been appointed Vice President of the Illinois Institute of Technology and Dean of the Chicago-Kent Law School, effective June 1, 1997.

PROFESSOR HENRY H. PERRITT, JR., B.S., M.S., J.D.

Professor of Law

Presented by

STEVEN P. FRANKINO

Dean

Professor Perritt is an expert on the synergy between information technology and the law. He has written more than 45 law review articles and 15 books including Law and the Information Superhighway. He served on President Clinton's transition team as an adviser on Internet policy, and drafted principles for electronic dissemination of public information which formed the core of the Electronic Freedom of Information Act Amendments adopted by Congress in 1996. He has served as Deputy Undersecretary of Labor and was a member of the White House staff during the Ford Administration.

At the School of Law, Professor Perritt founded the Villanova Center for Information Law and Policy (VCILP) which uses the Internet to broaden access to all types of legal information. He has led a group of students, faculty and staff to restore the rule of law in Bosnia using technology. What began with a donation of a laptop computer and modem to the Sarajevo Law Faculty to help the process of rebuilding legal infrastructures has expanded into other countries in the former Yugoslavia and other former communist countries in Central and Eastern Europe. Project Bosnia has equipped the Bosnian Federation Constitutional Court and the Federation Ombudsmen with computers and a server, and has linked them to the Internet. Project Bosnia is working with the constitutional courts in Slovenia, Slovakia, the Czech Republic, Hungary, Croatia and Macedonia to facilitate communication among them.

Professor Perritt's greatest contribution has been in the classroom. For over 15 years, he has informed the minds that shape the legal profession. He teaches more than the law. He inspires students to take the time to discover possibilities not immediately applicable to their careers. He demonstrates to students that lawyers can encourage change if they have the courage and moral fiber to do so.

Through VCILP, Project Bosnia and in the classroom, Professor Perritt practices what he teaches. He treats those around him with respect and kindness. He knows that as much teaching takes place outside the classroom as in. He is a mentor to colleagues and students. He brings to his work and his life a passion for the possibilities, and then taps the potential in those around him.

We are going to miss Professor Perritt. We wish him good fortune as he assumes the deanship of the Chicago-Kent College of Law, Illinois Institute of Technology.

CONFERRING OF THE MEDALLION AWARDS

The second Medallion Award is conferred on Dean Steven P. Frankino. Dean Frankino has served legal education and the profession with distinction for thirty-five years, twenty-three of those years as a law school dean. He leaves as School of Law Dean July 1, and, after a well-earned sabbatical, will rejoin the faculty as Professor of Law.

STEVEN P. FRANKINO, A.B., J.D.

Dean

Presented by

DORIS DELTOSTO BROGAN

Associate Dean for Academic Affairs

In Villanova School of Law today, and to a large extent in legal education today, we see the handiwork of Dean Frankino. We also see the true measure of a man who has dedicated his career to shaping legal professionals, and doing so against the background of a Roman Catholic ethos. Today as he steps down from his third deanship, we honor that dedication.

Dean Frankino graduated from Catholic University of America, Columbus School of Law in 1962, where he was a member of the Catholic University Law Review, and was elected to the Order of the Coif. He began his teaching career in 1962 as a teaching fellow at Northwestern University School of Law. He was appointed to the Faculty of the Catholic University of America, Columbus School of Law in 1963, and was invited to join the Villanova University School of Law Faculty in 1965. During his tenure as a member of the Villanova Faculty, he was a Research Professor at the Institute of Comparative Law, University of Florence, Italy.

In 1971 he was selected by Creighton University School of Law as its Dean. He served at Creighton until 1977, when he resigned to become a partner in the law firm of Kutak, Rock & Huie. In 1979 he was named Dean of the Columbus School of Law, and General Counsel of the Catholic University of America. He returned to Villanova in 1987 as Dean of the School of Law.

Dean Frankino is a member of and consultant to the ABA and the AALS, a fellow of the Pennsylvania Bar Foundation, a member of the Steering Committee of the Pennsylvania Futures Commission on Justice in the 21st Century, and a member of ALI. His lifelong commitment to his faith earned him the honor of being named a Knight of Malta.

His talents and dedication have benefitted significantly the schools at which he has served. Villanova benefitted particularly from his service. During his ten-year tenure at Villanova, the Dean brought technology to the School; raised more than five million dollars for extensive renovations including the law library; conceived of and followed through with a campaign to raise funds for the School's first endowed chair; and encouraged and supported faculty scholarship. Because of his vision and ability to lead and inspire, this year the School of Law received one of the best reaccreditation reports of any law school in the country.

His leadership in the ABA and AALS has improved the quality of legal education in this country. His dedication to international law and the ABA's CEELI project, evidenced by his own involvement and his enthusiastic support of the involvement of others, has contributed importantly to the restoration of a rule of law in Eastern Europe. As a result of that involvement, School of Law initiatives like Project Bosnia have flourished. An outstanding lawyer, administrator and teacher, Dean Frankino represents the finest traditions of our profession. We will miss him as dean, but are looking forward to welcoming him back to the faculty.

Dean Frankino is married to Rosemarie Leonardo Frankino, and has three children: daughters Christina and Alleen; and son Sean.

THE ORDER OF THE COIF

The Order of the Coif is the National Honor Society devoted to the encouragement of high standards of legal scholarship with chapters in leading law schools throughout the country. Graduates in the top ten percent of the class are eligible for election to the Order of the Coif.

The Order takes its name from the word used to designate the cap which all the members of the Order were required to wear. This cap or coif was originally of white lawn or silk, forming a close-fitting hood, to be seen today in old engravings, pictures and effigies of distinguished Judges and Serjeants. Serjeants were an order of the highest rank of barrister at the English or Irish bar. By the ancient privileges of the Serjeants, this coif was not to be taken off even in the royal presence. When wigs came into fashion the coif was changed, no longer being worn as a complete hood, but merely as a circular piece of white lawn fastened to the top of the wig.

RECOGNITION OF MERITORIOUS SERVICE

Many of our students have rendered service to the School of Law through involvement in co-curricular activities, student governance and student activities. Certificates recognizing meritorious service will be awarded to the students listed below in connection with the activities noted.

Co-Curricular Activities

Presented Alphabetically

THE MOOT COURT BOARD

The Moot Court Board is an honorary student organization comprised of students demonstrating outstanding written and oral advocacy skills. Students are selected for Board membership by one of three methods; through exceptional performance in the first-year Moot Court I Program, the second year Reimel Moot Court Competition, or the third-year try-out procedure.

The Board is dedicated to the development of student appellate advocacy and coordinates a wide range of activities aimed at achieving that goal. Members represent the Law School in national moot court competitions, organize and administer every facet of the Reimel Competition, and supplement the instruction of the Law School's legal writing program for first year students.

CORPORATE LAW SOCIETY

The Corporate Law Society is an organization developed to enhance the interaction and increase the dialogue between students of similar interest and members of the Bar. In addition, it seeks to bridge the gap between the corporate legal community and the Law School. The activities of the organization will provide its membership with an opportunity to gain a practical understanding of corporate law both in terms of a private firm's corporate department and as in-house counsel for a corporation.
